Get involved this Queensland Women's Week!

The people of Keppel are being encouraged to get involved in this year's Queensland Women's Week, as the Palaszczuk Government announces funding for celebrations and events across the state.

Queensland Women's Week 2019 will have the theme of Invest in women, Invest in the future, and will recognise the achievements and challenges faced by women and girls in Queensland.

Member for Keppel and Assistant Education Minister Brittany Lauga welcomed the funding announcement which will be put towards the Livingstone Shire's event "Women - Let's Talk About Money".

"There is an incredible amount of work done to support women in the local community.

"The theme of Invest in women, Invest in the future aims to teach women about the importance of financial literacy, so they can have a bright and secure future," she said.

Mrs Lauga said this is a great time to celebrate the many achievements of women and girls the region.

Queensland Women's Week runs from 2 to 10 March 2019 and is an extension of International Women's Day on 8 March.
