More pre-poll hours announced

Voters who want to get in early to beat election day queues can lodge their vote from 9am on Monday 19 October.

The Member for Keppel Brittany Lauga and the Member for Rockhampton Barry O'Rourke said the Electoral Office Queensland is expanding the number and hours of operation of early voting centres across Queensland for the 2020 state general election.

"There will be approximately 200 early voting centres at locations across Queensland, and locations are currently being finalised," said Ms Lauga.

"Most early voting hours were expanded to 9.00am to 6.00pm on Mondays, Wednesday, Fridays; 9.00am to 9.00pm on Tuesdays and Thursdays; and 9.00am to 5.00pm on Saturday, 24 October.

Mr O'Rourke said polling booths would be established at the PCYC Hall, 170 Matthew Flinders Drive, Cooe Bay, Gracemere Community Hall, 6-12 Barry Street, and James Lawrence Pavilion, Rockhampton Showgrounds, New Exhibition Road, Wandal.

"For further information call Keppel electorate office on 49131500 or Rockhampton EO 40042100."
