MEDIA RELEASE

3 March 2020

Queensland Veterans' Memorial Grants now available

Member for Keppel Brittany Lauga is encouraging veterans' groups and other eligible community organisations to apply for the next round of Queensland Veterans' Memorial Grants.

Ms Lauga said the grants include funding of up to $40,000 per project and additional funding of up to $10,000 for conservation management plans.

"Our memorials play an important role in honouring our servicemen and women," she said.

"But unfortunately they get damaged or weathered over time.

"This important fund allows community groups to restore, conserve and create monuments and memorials acknowledging our veterans' contributions."

Ms Lauga said the Palaszczuk Government had committed $1.2 million of funding over three years to protect and conserve our memorials for future generations.

For more information, visit www.qld.gov.au/memorialgrants for more information or to apply for a grant.

Applications close for the final round of grants in August 2020.
