MEDIA RELEASE

30th October 2020

Shed a bonus for Paddock's future

A new shed at Jack's Paddock in Yeppoon will help set the community group up for a bright future, the Member for Keppel Brittany Lauga said today.

Ms Lauga officially opened the group's shed which was built out of a $17,500 Gambling Community Benefit Fund grant – the first building structure at Jack's Paddock and its community garden.

The shed will provide a place to store equipment and provides shade.

Jack's Paddock Yeppoon has been hailed as a showcase for other similar projects in the Capricorn area, said Ms Lauga, by displaying the mutual benefits of a cohesive community.

She said there was plenty of enthusiasm around the gardens which also provide a unique play space for children.
