MEDIA RELEASE

29 October 2021

Make a date with your grandparents

Celebrating the integral roles our grandparents play in our lives is the focus of Grandparents Day later this month.

The Member for Keppel and Assistant Education Minister Brittany Lauga said “It's a day to connect with our older loved ones and celebrate what they mean to you, their contributions to support families, shape futures and strengthen communities.

“In Queensland, Grandparents Day is celebrated every year on the last Sunday in October.

“So this year it's Sunday 31 October, the last day of Seniors Month.”

Ms Lauga encourages us to celebrate with our grandparents in lots of ways, virtually or in person:

- share a favourite meal
- read a book or play a game
- have a yarn together
- ask about your family history
- download and send a free e-card

Queensland Seniors Month provides opportunities to promote positive community attitudes towards older people and ageing, facilitate community participation, and enhance community connections.

“This aligns with the Queensland Government’s vision of building age-friendly communities in Queensland.”

In 2021, Queensland Seniors Month is being held from Friday 1 to Sunday 31 October.

The Queensland Government funds the Council on the Ageing Queensland to coordinate Seniors Month on its behalf.
